Not Much This Time

I haven't got much this time to pass on to you. In fact, I may not do much more writing of this newsletter from now on a regular basis, but only as I have enough to make a publication.

I expect to get back to the Anderson genealogy records I have and get it all entered so I can see what work can be done (as I did for the Jacobson line). I will just let you all know via e-mail rather than this newsletter.

The rest of this publication contains a summary of the books and documents I have that might be of interest to you. I also show a couple of pictures, one that Caroline gave me a couple of months ago and one I scanned that shows Eddie as a young boy. I will be adding pictures and stories, etc. to the web page as time goes by so check there for new additions. Also, please send me anything that I can add to the web site.

Books and Documents

Here is a summary of books, pamphlets, etc. that I have. There are probably more than this, but these are the main ones. If any of you wish to borrow any of these, please let me know. In some cases, I have more than one copy.

- Dutson Family History (vol.1) 1957 - compiled by Louise Lyman Neilson and Dora Dutson Flack

Some notebooks belonging to Eddie and Sarah Delilah Jacobson (not digitized):

Trustees' Account Book, School District No. 6, Millard County, Utah

Starting School year 1900 and 1901 up until 1905, then it becomes the dairy breeding account for Eddie Jacobson running from 1937 to 1958

Audio Recordings (These have been digitized - I can give you a copy on CD if you wish):

Eddie Jacobson Funeral - cassette tape

Delilah Jacobson Funeral - reel tape

Other (I will put pictures of these on the web site soon):

The leather trunk used by Maren and Ole Hansen coming from Denmark

A lock of hair from Sarah Delilah

Ole Hansen's mandolin

Ole Hansen's baton (I think it was his)

Jacobson Family Picture - ca. 1964

This shows everybody in the family, with the inclusion of Conrad's inset picture. Gordon Fulwilder, in the lower right is an Indian boy who was living with the Buchanans.

Eddie Jacobson as a Young Boy

This was taken probably around the mid 1890's. Eddie is the closest in the front. The rest of the picture is fairly blurry.
