

DANMARKS AMTER

LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Denmark is divided into 22 Amter, three of these are subdivided making a total of 25. The Faerø Islands, located north of Scotland in the North Atlantic, constitute an independent amt with the permission of home rule under the Danish crown. Each amter is headed by an amtmand, appointed by the King, and a council elected locally. Below are listed the names of the amter in alphabetical order with a key showing their location on the map.

|                     |        |
|---------------------|--------|
| Bornholm            | J6     |
| Frederiksborg       | G6     |
| Haderslev           | HI2    |
| Hjørring            | C3-4   |
| Holbaek             | GH5    |
| København           | H6     |
| København           | H6     |
| Roskilde            | H6     |
| Maribo              | J4-5   |
| Odense              | H3-4   |
| Odense              | H3-4   |
| Assens              | HI3    |
| Praestø             | IJ6    |
| Randers             | EF4    |
| Ribe                | GH1    |
| Ringkøbing          | EFG1-2 |
| Skanderborg         | FG2-3  |
| Sorø                | HI5    |
| Svendborg           | I3-4   |
| Thisted             | D1-2   |
| Tønder              | II-2   |
| Vejle               | GH2    |
| Viborg              | EF2-3  |
| Aabenraa-Sønderborg | IJ2-3  |
| Aabenraa            |        |
| Sønderborg          |        |
| Aalborg             | DE2-3  |
| Aarhus              | FG3    |

DENMARK'S AMTER ABOUT 1792

|                  |       |
|------------------|-------|
| Antvorkov        | QR5-6 |
| Apenrade         | R2    |
| Assens           | R3-4  |
| Borglum          | L3-4  |
| Bovling          | NO1-2 |
| Bredsted         | S1-2  |
| Dronningborg     | NO3-4 |
| Dragsholm        | P5-6  |
| Flensborg        | S2-3  |
| Gravensteens     | S4    |
| Haderslewhuus    | R2    |
| Hald             | NO2-3 |
| Halsted          | S5    |
| Haureballegaards | OP4   |
| Hindsgaul        | Q3    |
| Hirscholm        | P7    |
| Holbaek          | Q5-6  |
| Jaegerspriis     | PQ6   |
| Kalø             | O4    |
| Kalundborg       | Q5    |
| Koldinghus       | PQ2-3 |
| Korsør           | R5    |
| Kronborg         | P6-7  |
| København        | Q7    |
| Lundenaes        | OP1-2 |
| Løgumkloster     | R1-2  |
| Mariager         | N3    |
| Møn              | S6-7  |
| Nordborg         | S3    |
| Nyeborg          | R4    |
| Odense           | Q4    |
| Ribehus          | Q1    |
| Ringstaed        | QR6   |
| Roskilde         | Q6    |
| Rugaard          | QR3   |
| Sejlstrop        | L3-4  |
| Silkeborg        | OP3   |
| Skive            | N2    |
| Skanderborg      | P3    |
| Stiernholm       | P3    |
| Sorø             | QR5-6 |
| Saebyegaard      | Q5    |
| Søbyegaard       | S3-4  |
| Sønderborg       | S3    |
| Tranekaer        | S4    |
| Tryggevaelde     | R6    |
| Tønder           | RS1-2 |
| Vordingborg      | RS6   |
| Aalborghus       | MN3   |
| Aakier           | P3    |
| Aalholms         | S5-6  |
| Aastrup          | KL3-4 |
| Ørum             | M1    |

NOTE: THE MAPS ON THE FOLLOWING PAGES ARE NOT DRAWN TO SCALE; THEY ARE DRAWN ONLY TO GIVE AN OVERALL PICTURE. DETAILED MAPS SHOWING THE AREA IN WHICH RESEARCH IS TO BE CARRIED OUT ARE ESSENTIAL FOR GEOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION.

DENMARK'S AMTER ABOUT 1792

